Saturday Daytime Events: Demo and Demo Team Forms will be at 9:00 a.m., and Rules meeting begins at 9:30. All Weapons Forms Division will start Following the rules meeting! Sparring will follow forms. Stick Combat will be the last division after sparring.

Awards: Awards will be given to 1st thru 3rd places in all division. 1st place winners must attend night time ceremony. If you cannot attend the night ceremony, you can elect a representative to receive your ring.

Rules: All Divisions will use TKO rules. See the latest TKO rules, or go to www.TKOLeague.com.

Seeded players: All competitors earning the #1 Top Rank Seed in sparring will fight last in a double elimination for 1st place. Stick combat will be a single elimination.

In the weapon, traditional and kata divisions, the #1 Top Ranked seed will also go last against the winner of the run-off division. This means there will be a run-off in every division to determine “one” winner. The winner of the run-off will then compete against the #1 Top Rank Seed for 1st place. Forms and Sparring Competitors will go by Order of Seed. Wild Card Players will Draw for Order.

Wild Card Players: Wild Card competitors will draw for order of play, the winner of the wild card for sparring will then enter play as the first competitor. Players sparring continue fighting their way through seeded players.

HOW THE RATINGS WORKS

For 2019 we have several ways for a competitor to earn points and qualify for State Finals! We have created an “A”, “AA” and “AAA” rated Qualifier events throughout the State of Texas! Each TKO League sanctioned event will be a “Qualifier”. A competitor that earns the most points will earn a preferred seed at TKO State Championship. Tournaments that is “A” rated will earn single points. Tournaments that is “AA” rated will earn double points, and tournaments that is “AAA” rated will earn Triple Points. Go to www.TournamentTiger.com and click “League” to view TKO tournaments. To view your seeding in each division click “Leader Board”.
